EXHIBIT D - INDIVIDUAL DEBTOR'S STATEMENT OF COMPLIANCE WITH CREDIT COUNSELING REQUIREMENT

Warning: You must be able to check truthfully one of the five statements regarding credit counseling listed below. If you cannot do so, you are not eligible to file a bankruptcy case, and the court can dismiss any case you do file. If that happens, you will lose whatever filing fee you paid, and your creditors will be able to resume collection activities against you. If your case is dismissed and you file another bankruptcy case later, you may be required to pay a second filing fee and you may have to take extra steps to stop creditors' collection activities.

Every individual debtor must file this Exhibit D. If a joint petition is filed, each spouse must complete and file a separate Exhibit D. Check one of the five statements below and attach any documents as directed.

- 1. Within the 180 days before the filing of my bankruptcy case, I received a briefing from a credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator that outlined the opportunities for available credit counseling and assisted me in performing a related budget analysis, and I have a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to me. Attach a copy of the certificate and a copy of any debt repayment plan developed through the agency.
- □ 2. Within the 180 days before the filing of my bankruptcy case, I received a briefing from a credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator that outlined the opportunities for available credit counseling and assisted me in performing a related budget analysis, but I do not have a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to me. You must file a copy of a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to you and a copy of any debt repayment plan developed through the agency no later than 14 days after your bankruptcy case is filed.
- □ 3. I certify that I requested credit counseling services from an approved agency but was unable to obtain the services during the seven days from the time I made my request, and the following exigent circumstances merit a temporary waiver of the credit counseling requirement so I can file my bankruptcy case now. [Summarize exigent circumstances here.]

If your certification is satisfactory to the court, you must still obtain the credit counseling briefing within the first 30 days after you file your bankruptcy petition and promptly file a certificate from the agency that provided the counseling, together with a copy of any debt management plan developed through the agency. Failure to fulfill these requirements may result in dismissal of your case. Any extension of the 30-day deadline can be granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days. Your case may also be dismissed if the court is not satisfied with your reasons for filing your bankruptcy case without first receiving a credit counseling briefing.

☐ 4. I am not required to receive a credit counseling briefing because of: [Check the applicable statement.] [Must be accompanied by a motion for determination by the court.]

STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL AFFAIRS

This statement is to be completed by every debtor. Spouses filing a joint petition may file a single statement on which the information for both spouses is combined. If the case is filed under chapter 12 or chapter 13, a married debtor must furnish information for both spouses whether or not a joint petition is filed, unless the spouses are separated and a joint petition is not filed. An individual debtor engaged in business as a sole proprietor, partner, family farmer, or self-employed professional, should provide the information requested on this statement concerning all such activities as well as the individual's personal affairs. To indicate payments, transfers and the like to minor children, state the child's initials and the name and address of the child's parent or guardian, such as "A.B., a minor child, by John Doe, guardian." Do not disclose the child's name. See, 11 U.S.C. § 112; Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1007(m).

Questions 1 - 18 are to be completed by all debtors. Debtors that are or have been in business, as defined below, also must complete Questions 19 - 25. If the answer to an applicable question is "None," mark the box labeled "None." If additional space is needed for the answer to any question, use and attach a separate sheet properly identified with the case name, case number (if known), and the number of the question.

ATTORNEY-CLIENT AGREEMENT - CHAPTER 7 BANKRUPTCY

Aiken, LLC ("Attorney") to represent Client in a Chapter 7 Bankruptcy. The Attorney agrees to provide all the services necessary in a routine Chapter 7 case including: preparation of the Petition, Statements and Schedules, filing the same with the Clerk of the Court, appearing and representing Client at the first scheduled hearing for the First Meeting of Creditors, and negotiating reaffirmation agreements, if applicable. For such representation, the Client agrees to pay a flat legal fee of $100.00 —. This amount does not include the filing fee charged by the Court of $300.00 —, nor does it include the credit counseling fee or the financial management course fee, which must be paid directly to the counseling agency. A credit report is required and, if the Attorney must obtain the credit report, the fee for the same is $50.00 —. The Client may pay the fee in installment payments of no more than six (6) months, as detailed in the Attorney Fee Installment Schedule (Attachment A). All installment payments are due 30 days after the prior payment.

Client understands that the case must be filed within sixty (60) days of the first petition preparation by the Attorney or additional attorney fees may be charged. The total amount of attorney fees and court filing fees must be received before the case will be filed and the credit counseling course must be completed before the case will be filed. If payment is made by Client via personal check and that personal check is returned for any reason, there will be an additional $50.00 returned check fee.

The retainer funds will be treated as an advance payment, allowing the Attorney to take the retainer into income immediately and the funds will NOT be placed in the Attorney's trust account. If, after an initial, detailed financial analysis is completed, it is not possible or desirable for the Client to file a Chapter 7 bankruptcy case and a Chapter 13 bankruptcy case must be filed, a new retainer agreement must be executed and all amounts paid under this agreement will be applied to the attorney fees and costs for a Chapter 13 case. If the Client decides that the Client does not wish to proceed with the filing of a bankruptcy case after the attorney has been retained, the attorney will refund the unused portion of the retainer after deducting fees for all time spent on the case (billable in 1/10 of an hour increments and at the rate of $250 per hour for attorney and $125 for paralegal/legal assistant).

Any work by the Attorney not specifically stated above, including but not limited to:

- A. Adversary Proceedings
- B. Objections to Discharge
- C. Debtor's Examination under Rule 2004
- D. U.S. Trustee Audit of the Debtor's Case
- E. Contested Request for Turnover Matters
- F. Objections to Exemptions
- G. Any Actions to be Contested Seeking Relief from the Automatic Stay
- H. Required Appearances at any Continued First Meeting of Creditors
- I. Amendments of Any Schedules, Including the Addition of Creditors
- J. Appeal of any Decision
- K. Re-opening a Closed Case for any reason is NOT covered by the flat fee stated herein and will require payment of an additional retainer, which will be billed against at the Attorney's current hourly rate of $250.00, as well as any additional court filing fee and/or expenses related to the matter.

ATTORNEY-CLIENT AGREEMENT - CHAPTER 7 BANKRUPTCY

Representation by the Attorney is limited solely and exclusively to the Chapter 7 case and does not include any other legal matters of any nature, including but not limited to foreclosure defense, home loan modification, debt negotiation, and judgment actions by creditors. If Client desires representation in any other matter, a separate fee agreement must be executed.

Client agrees to cooperate fully with the attorney in all respects, including, but not limited to:

- A. Appearing for office conferences when requested by the attorney
- B. Responding promptly all requests by the attorney for information
- C. Completing the pre- and post-filing courses in a timely manner
- D. Attending the required First Meeting of Creditors with all necessary documents
- E. Obeying all Court Orders
- F. Avoiding violation of any injunctions
- G. Refraining from unlawful conduct as it relates to the Bankruptcy case
- H. Complying with all other requests made by the Attorney relating to furthering the Client's case

A breach of this provision shall entitle the Attorney to immediately seek to withdraw from the case

Client acknowledges that Client must complete a course in financial management after filing the Client's petition. This course must be completed prior to the First Meeting of Creditors to allow the Attorney adequate time to obtain the certificate of completion and file with the Court. If the Client does not complete this course prior to the First Meeting of Creditors, it is possible that the case will be closed without a discharge and the Client will have to petition the Court to have the case re-opened, incurring an additional court filing fee plus additional attorney fees.

Mutual courtesy and respect are essential for the attorney/client relationship to succeed. The Attorney will respond to all letters, emails and phone calls as soon as possible. Client agrees to do the same and to advise the attorney in advance if Client is unable to make an appointment or appear at a court date. Client agrees to immediately inform the Attorney of any change in home or work address or phone number and of any other change in circumstances that may impact the Client's bankruptcy filing.

Client understands that bankruptcy will remain on the Client's credit reports for a period of up to ten (10) years. Client understands that upon the filing of the bankruptcy petition, all of Client's open credit card accounts, even those with a zero balance, will likely be closed by the credit grantor. Client understands that bankruptcy law allows utility companies to require a deposit for continued service. Client also acknowledges that it is NOT permissible to incur new unsecured debt after meeting with an attorney but before filing for bankruptcy. To incur new debt within ninety (90) days of filing for protection under Chapter 7 is presumed to be fraud and may result in a finding by the Court that that debt is not dischargeable.

Client understands that upon filing a petition in bankruptcy, all of Client's property becomes property of the bankruptcy estate and, unless exempt, may be administered/sold by the trustee in order to benefit Client's creditors. Further, if Client is operating a business, the trustee may demand that Client cease operations of that business immediately while the bankruptcy case is pending. The trustee may sell any and all interests the Client may have in any business, if the interest is not exempt. Client understands that Client has a duty to cooperate with the trustee.

Aiken & Aiken, LLC and its attorneys make no promises or representations as to the outcome of the case, but agree to use their best efforts on behalf of the Client and in the Client's best interests. Client hereby acknowledges that the attorney has NOT made any promises or representations as to the ultimate outcome of this legal matter.

The Attorney will keep the Client's file in an electronic format only, either in the Attorney's office or in off-site storage, after the conclusion of the matter to which the files relate as required by the current laws/professional standards in place at the time. The Client understands that the Client shall receive copies of all documents related to the Client's file and should retain these documents. If the Client requires additional copies of the Client's file the Client understands that the Client will be charged for such copies.

If any part of this agreement is deemed invalid, illegal, or inoperative for any reason, it is the intention of the Client and the Attorney that the remaining parts, so far as possible and reasonable, shall be effective and fully operative.

This agreement is made in and shall be construed and governed under the laws of the State of Illinois and is effective when both the Attorney and the Client sign it. This agreement may only be modified by the written and fully executed agreement of the parties. This agreement is binding upon Client and Attorney and upon their respective successors, trustees, legatees, nominees, representatives, heirs and assigns.

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS

NOTICE TO CONSUMER DEBTOR(S) UNDER § 342(b) OF THE BANKRUPTCY CODE

In accordance with § 342(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, this notice to individuals with primarily consumer debts: (1) Describes briefly the services available from credit counseling services; (2) Describes briefly the purposes, benefits and costs of the four types of bankruptcy proceedings you may commence; and (3) Informs you about bankruptcy crimes and notifies you that the Attorney General may examine all information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case.

You are cautioned that bankruptcy law is complicated and not easily described. Thus, you may wish to seek the advice of an attorney to learn of your rights and responsibilities should you decide to file a petition. Court employees cannot give you legal advice.

Notices from the bankruptcy court are sent to the mailing address you list on your bankruptcy petition. In order to ensure that you receive information about events concerning your case, Bankruptcy Rule 4002 requires that you notify the court of any changes in your address. If you are filing a joint case (a single bankruptcy case for two individuals married to each other), and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, you and your spouse will generally receive a single copy of each notice mailed from the bankruptcy court in a jointly-addressed envelope, unless you file a statement with the court requesting that each spouse receive a separate copy of all notices.

1. Services Available from Credit Counseling Agencies

With limited exceptions, § 109(h) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that all individual debtors who file for bankruptcy relief on or after October 17, 2005, receive a briefing that outlines the available opportunities for credit counseling and provides assistance in performing a budget analysis. The briefing must be given within 180 days before the bankruptcy filing. The briefing may be provided individually or in a group (including briefings conducted by telephone or on the Internet) and must be provided by a nonprofit budget and credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator. The clerk of the bankruptcy court has a list that you may consult of the approved budget and credit counseling agencies. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the briefing.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, an individual debtor generally must complete a financial management instructional course before he or she can receive a discharge. The clerk also has a list of approved financial management instructional courses. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the course.

2. The Four Chapters of the Bankruptcy Code Available to Individual Consumer Debtors

Chapter 7: Liquidation ($245 filing fee, $75 administrative fee, $15 trustee surcharge: Total Fee $335)

Chapter 7 is designed for debtors in financial difficulty who do not have the ability to pay their existing debts. Debtors whose debts are primarily consumer debts are subject to a "means test" designed to determine whether the case should be permitted to proceed under chapter 7. If your income is greater than the median income for your state of residence and family size, in some cases, the United States trustee (or bankruptcy administrator), the trustee, or creditors have the right to file a motion requesting that the court dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Code. It is up to the court to decide whether the case should be dismissed.

Under chapter 7, you may claim certain of your property as exempt under governing law. A trustee may have the right to take possession of and sell the remaining property that is not exempt and use the sale proceeds to pay your creditors.

The purpose of filing a chapter 7 case is to obtain a discharge of your existing debts. If, however, you are found to have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge and, if it does, the purpose for which you filed the bankruptcy petition will be defeated.

Even if you receive a general discharge, some particular debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible for most taxes and student loans; debts incurred to pay nondischargeable taxes; domestic support and property settlement obligations; most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; and debts for death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs. Also, if a creditor can prove that a debt arose from fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, or theft, or from a willful and malicious injury, the bankruptcy court may determine that the debt is not discharged.

Chapter 13: Repayment of All or Part of the Debts of an Individual with Regular Income ($235 filing fee, $75 administrative fee: Total Fee $310)

Chapter 13 is designed for individuals with regular income who would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time. You are only eligible for chapter 13 if your debts do not exceed certain dollar amounts set forth in the

Case 15-80558 Doc 1 Filed 02/28/15 Entered 02/28/15 15:40:14 Desc Main Document Page 41 of 45

Bankruptcy Code.

Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, using your future earnings. The period allowed by the court to repay your debts may be three years or five years, depending upon your income and other factors. The court must approve your plan before it can take effect.

After completing the payments under your plan, your debts are generally discharged except for domestic support obligations; most student loans; certain taxes; most criminal fines and restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury; and certain long term secured obligations.

Chapter 11: Reorganization ($1,167 filing fee, $550 administrative fee: Total Fee $1,717)

Chapter 11 is designed for the reorganization of a business but is also available to consumer debtors. Its provisions are quite complicated, and any decision by an individual to file a chapter 11 petition should be reviewed with an attorney.

Chapter 12: Family Farmer or Fisherman ($200 filing fee, $75 administrative fee: Total Fee $275)

Chapter 12 is designed to permit family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time from future earnings and is similar to chapter 13. The eligibility requirements are restrictive, limiting its use to those whose income arises primarily from a family-owned farm or commercial fishing operation.

3. Bankruptcy Crimes and Availability of Bankruptcy Papers to Law Enforcement Officials

A person who knowingly and fraudulently conceals assets or makes a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury, either orally or in writing, in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to a fine, imprisonment, or both. All information supplied by a debtor in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the United States Trustee, the Office of the United States Attorney, and other components and employees of the Department of Justice.

WARNING: Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information regarding your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. Your bankruptcy case may be dismissed if this information is not filed with the court within the time deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court. The documents and the deadlines for filing them are listed on Form B200, which is posted at http://www.uscourts.gov/bkforms/bankruptcy_forms.html#procedure.
